In the case of a corporation, partnership, limited liability company or unincorporated association, the listing may be signed by a principal officer of the taxpayer, a full-time employee of the taxpayer who has been empowered to do so by a principal officer of the taxpayer or an agent of the taxpayer authorized by a principal officer of the taxpayer.

Property Tax Relief, Exemptions and Exclusions

North Carolina offers income based tax relief programs for homeowners who are at least 65 years of age or totally and permanently disabled. Homes owned by honorably discharged disabled veterans or their unmarried surviving spouses may also be eligible for tax relief.

North Carolina General Statutes allow for certain types of property to be exempt from taxation if they meet the requirements specified by the statutes. Examples include property used for religious, charitable or scientific purposes.

Military personnel on active duty in North Carolina with a home of record in another state may not be subject to personal property and registered vehicle taxes in North Carolina.

Tax deferral programs are available for certain types of property if they meet statutory requirements: agricultural, forest, and horticultural land; wildlife conservation areas; and designated historical buildings.

Information and applications for these various programs can be found on our website at www.carteretcountytax.com. Additional information can be obtained by calling our office at 252-728-8485 or sending an email to
